

14 Vital Skills for Supervisors

Building Your Team

10

Building Your Team

By choosing the right people and getting them to believe in a shared goal, you lay the groundwork for a winning team.

Importance of Trust

Skill
10

- People work together more effectively when they share a desire to achieve group goals

How to Earn Credibility

Skill
10

- Admit what you don't know and ask the team for help
- Allot plenty of time in meetings for teammates to give input so that you speak less and listen more 🗣️
- Support the team's findings and increase its influence throughout your organization

Accept Each Member's Strengths and Weaknesses

Skill
10

- If you play favorites and tend to only listen to certain people, you'll exclude others and drive a wedge into the team
- Pay special attention to quiet individuals
- Let them speak up, even if that means muzzling more vocal members of the group

Improving the Work Environment

Skill
10

- Create a work environment that fosters collaboration
- Provide an open, inviting space that encourages workers to communicate

Improving the Work Environment

Skill
10

- Seating arrangement
 - Arrange chairs in a circle or U-shape so participants look at each other
- Office location
 - Sit nearby so that  teammates view you as a part of the group
- Office furniture
 - Set up light, moveable tables in the lounges, cafeteria and hallways

Assembling a Team

Skill
10

- Choose participants who bring distinct expertise to the group
- Pick people who share a positive attitude and a desire to produce results

Steps to Help Team Members Improve

Skill
10

1. Review workload

- Divvy up work so that no teammate faces an unfair burden

2. Cross-train

- Rotate assignments so that people can demonstrate a range of skills

3. Pair up teammates

- Ask an outstanding team member to mentor a poor performer for a few weeks

Motivating Teams

Skill
10

- Solicit everyone's opinion and let them bounce ideas off each other
- Withhold your views as long as possible so that you don't influence the group
- If disagreements erupt, remind everyone of the group's goal and the timetable for action
- Strike a positive, forward-looking tone when teammates grow frustrated

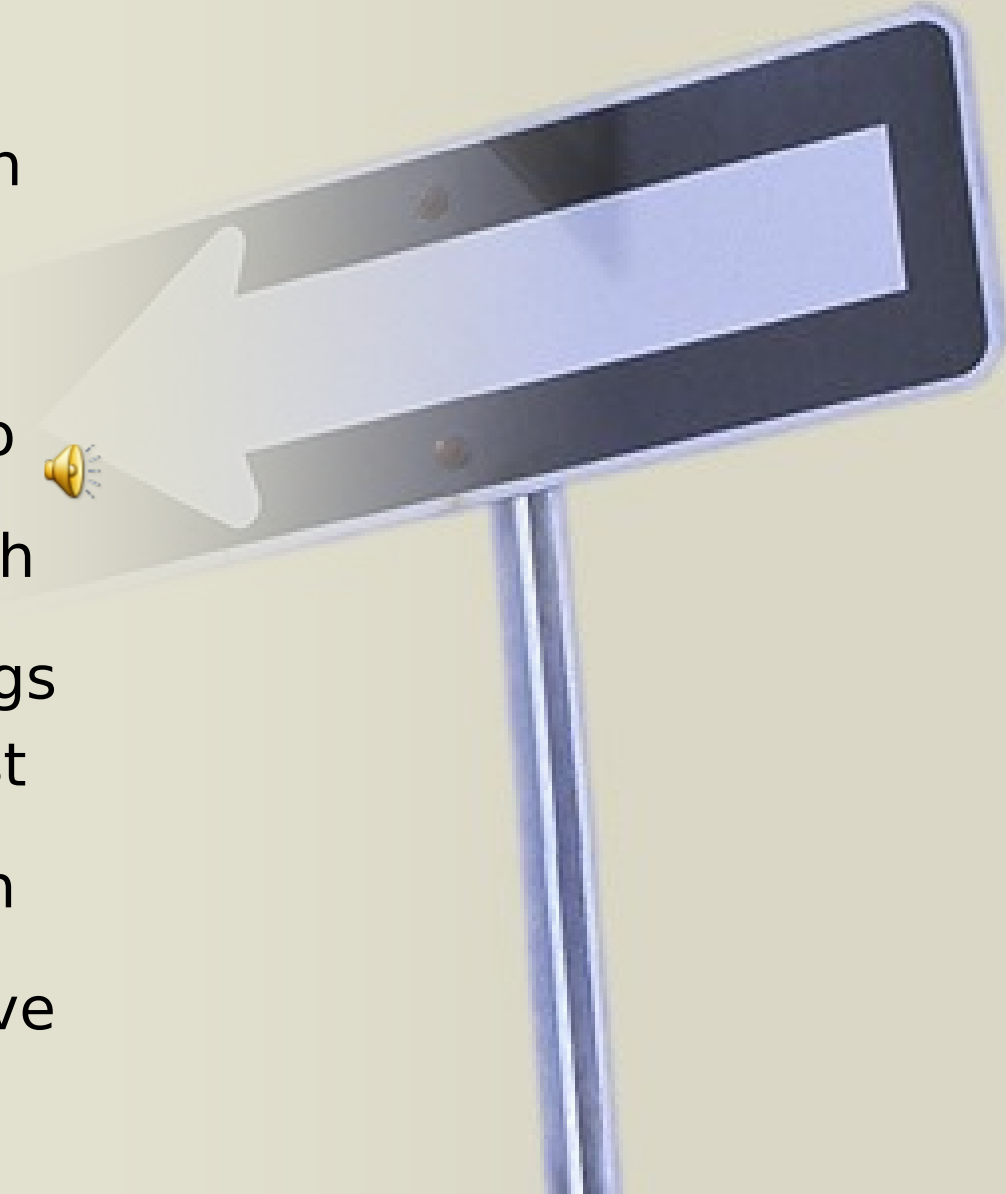

Warning

Skill
10

- Limit your team size to the fewest possible people who each bring critical expertise or experience to the group
- Don't overload a team with hangers-on who lack a clear role
- Don't invite “extras” to join a team for fear of hurting their feelings

- Have everyone complete a confidential form in which they rate each of their teammates
- Ask a third party to collect the forms and meet with each team member to analyze their ratings
- Employees can test if their self-perception fits with how their teammates perceive them

It's True

Skill 10

- The highest performing teams share five common traits:
 - They are small
 - The participants possess complementary skills
 - They exist for a common purpose
 - They have clear performance goals
 - Everyone is mutually accountable for results

